18. Definition of NetRR or RRD = (Total runs scored for/Number of balls faced) – (Totals runs scored against/Number of balls bowled).
19. In playoffs, tied games with same no. of runs will be decided by the super over.
  - Team batting first in main match will bat second in the super over.
  - All 7 players can field, however only 3 can bat (equivalent to two wickets) and one can bowl.
  - Batting and bowling teams has to announce 3 batsmen and 1 bowler, respectively, before the start of the super over.
  - A tied super over will be decided based on 1) the number of wickets, 2) boundaries scored (total of sixes and fours).
20. Forfeiture of a game in league stages means that the forfeiting team played seven overs without scoring any run which will reduce their Net Run Rate (NRR) accordingly; it doesn't affect the NRR of the winning team. Winning team will simply get 2 points.
21. *Criteria of seeding within the group (priority wise):
  - Points
  - Head to Head
  - NetRR
  - Coin Flip
